

Consider financing your lighting project

Finance your lighting project with Philips Lighting Capital. Here are some compelling advantages:

Complete lighting systems solutions and project financing from one trusted source

Net positive cash flow

The Philips Lighting Capital Finance Program is designed so that your monthly energy savings will exceed your monthly finance payment. As a result, you can return a positive monthly cash flow from your lighting upgrade beginning immediately.

Conservation of cash and credit lines

Avoid tying up your capital funds and bank credit line on your planned lighting project costs. Philips Lighting Capital allows you to maintain full financial flexibility by keeping these funds free to utilize as you see fit.

100% financing

Costs for your lighting product, electrical supplies, shipping, installation, labor and recycling of your old equipment are all included in one convenient, fixed monthly payment. No money down, no security deposits, no advance payments.

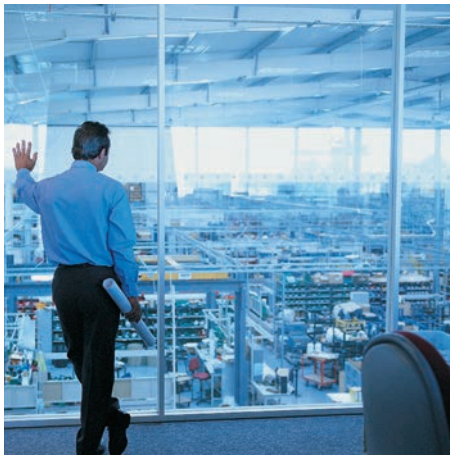

Experience and expertise

Philips is the world's largest lighting manufacturer and can offer you the most energy efficient lighting technologies available today to help you make the most of your lighting project. Philips Lighting Capital also allows you to structure your financing package to maximize available incentives and deliver a favorable financial solution.

Convenience

Philips Lighting Capital can provide credit approval 24 to 48 hours after application submission.
